Notes: JAMES ALDRIDGE SHORT at the age of 3 lost his mother and his grandmother LORA REBECCA (Gould) SHORT who must of loved children because after hers were grown she took Lora Rebecca Short and James Aldridge Short into her home along with her son John Kirkland Short and became a mother and grandmother again. Five years later in 1928 her husband James Henry Short died and she continued to be the perfect mother to her sons children.

The First Baptist Church of Meridian Miss was a dominant factor in the bringing up and rearing along with the superb public school system of Meridian Separate School District. Troop 6 of the Boy Scouts of America sponsored by the First Baptist Church along with aunts, uncles, cousins, teachers, and friends. There were no excuse for not making Honor Roll except for being lazy and a lack of desire.

JAS did in fact graduate from High School-Meridian Junior College-became a NAVAL AVIATOR with duty of flight instructor-with a wife and two children enrolled in 1946 at MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY graduating in Accounting in 1947. Worked as an accountant for a company that had up to 300 retail service stations outlets which sold gasoline, diesel, motor oil, drinks, cigarettes, batteries, tires, automotive accessories, beer, snacks, and food. The first position was that of office manager and the last was Treasurer with other duties at the same time and in between.

After moving from Greenwood Miss in 1963 to Hammond La Jim Short began to learn the habit of chasing the little white ball known as GOLF and has a good supply of awards and trophies to show for his efforts.

In 1986 he acquired a IBM PCXT computer and with the help of his brother in law began to a novice computer operator. About the same time his cousin Ben Short (after 50 yr) lapse made contact and the two began compiling family tree data of SHORT-FILBRY-WHITE-SANDERFORD-COVINGTON-ALDRIDGE-ROBERTS-MITCHELL-GOULD-DONALD-RICKOLL-ZIMMER And 32 others. In 1990 while persuing the GOULD family line in MAINE Jim Short stumbled upon the JOHN and PRISCILLA ALDEN line of MAYFLOWER FAME.

!NOTES: MARGARET SANDERFORD was a lifelong Presbyterian. Her favorite magazine was Readers Digest which she read from cover to cover each month. By far her favorite book was the HOLY BIBLE, which she read through each year on a daily basis for over 30 years--you will not find a underline or a mark on any of her Bibles--you could always depend on her memory to locate any scripture passage as she had uncanny memory of everything she read. Of course she started her Bible study with the St James version and progressed through the later versions as they were published. She belonged to the Women of the Church and worked with the young people quite a bit. She was an outstanding Sunday School Teacher and while not teaching attended a Sunday School Class all her life.

Margaret graduated from Meridian High School but did not consider a college education as a must in her life. She was a very lively and tireless person, thrifty in that her talent for sewing made 98% of clothing, made curtains and draperies for her house and crocheted bedspreads, footwarmers for her close kin and friends. She recorded all household expenditures daily and accounted for cost of living data so that a budget was easily maintained mostly on a month to month basis as the sums available was quite slim. She also remembered quite a number of kin and friends on their Birthdays and had a very long Christmas Card mailing list, that was reciprocated almost 100%

Since her husband spent so much of his spare time on the golf course and seemed to enjoy it so much she decided that she might enjoy the fresh air and the exercise that the game provided. To her surprise she adapted well to the game and some female golfer friends she played a respectable game and created quite a circle of golf friends. She was fortunate to being invited to travel with Oak Knoll Country Club friends to distant places to play golf in their airplane and van. Also she with her husband played in the Husband and Wife tournaments of the Mississippi Seniors Golf Assn.

Her heritage was one of giving and by so doing was on the receiving end of others who had the same spirit of giving.

She expressed the desire of having a MEMORIAL SERVICE with visitation after graveside rites were performed with was honored and dutiful carried out.

(1230) John ALDEN, Pilgrim was born 1599 in England, and married 1621 in Plymouth, Plymouth, Ma, (1231) Priscilla MULLENS who was born 1602 in Surrey, Dorking, England. John, Pilgrim died 12 Sep 1687 in Duxbury, Plymouth, Ma. Priscilla died 1680 in Duxbury, Plymouth, Ma.

HON. JOHN ALDEN, ancestor of most persons bearing the name ALDEN in this country, was one of the PLYMOUTH PILGRIMS, and the last male survivor of those who came in the MAYFLOWER in 1620. He was not of Leyden Church, but, as Bradford in his "HISTORY OF PLYMOUTH PLANTATION" informs us, "was hired for a cooper at SOUTHAMPTON, ENGLAND, Where the ship victualed; and being a hopefully young man was much desired, but left to his own liking to go or stay when he came here; but stayed and married here."

Undoubtly he was of early English stock. The name was well known at the time of the NORMAN invasion in 1066. In Domesday Book, the record of the census ordered by the CONQUEROR in 1086, the names Alden, Allden, Aldene and Aldenus, appear in nearly all the counties that felt most impress of the Danish invaders in the ninth century. Many of them are written as "tenants in capite", that is, as holding land as directly from the King, and many more as having been land-owners in the time of Edward, the Confessor, or succeeding years.

He lived in Plymouth until his removal to Duxbury in 1627 to the farm at "Eagle Tree Point" about eight miles distant from Plymouth.

When Miles Standish wife died John Alden when he went ask Priscilla if she would consider marriage to Miles Standish..Priscilla apparently liked John Alden the best and is said to have said in a tremulous voice "WHY DON'T YOU SPEAK FOR YOURSELF, JOHN?"

Priscilla Molines* or Mullens dau of William Molines survived the first winter that the Pilgrims arrived but her parents did not, nor did her brothers and servant. It is supposed that the Molines were French Huguenots. Mr Molines left a will and it was proved in Dorking Co., Surrey England. He left a married daughter in England..Sara Blunder, also his son William was to have his fathers share if he following him to America..his son did come later and received his fathers grant of land in 1633 from Plymouth to the first born of "the old servants."

(1517) Moses Simonson was born about 1605 in Leyden, Holland, and married about 1634 in Plymouth, Plymouth, Ma, (1521) Sara who was born about 1616.

MOSES SIMONSON was a member of the Church at Leyden, of Dutch descent, of whose origin no information has been obtained beyond this fact. He came on the ship FORTUNE as a single man, being granted an acre in 1623, and was possibly a minor when he emigrated as it was not until 1633 that he became a freeman. Edward Winslow stated that "Simonson was a child of one that was in communion with the Dutch Church at Leyden" (Good News from New England). Apparently he was known a 'Simmons' apparently two of his children were:

Rebecca b 1635 d	m. 1654 John Soule
Mary b 1637 d 1699	m. 1662 Joseph Alden

Children:

(1513) Edmund Weston, Sr was born about 1605 in England, and married about 1656 in Duxbury, Plymouth, Ma, (1516) de la Noye who was born about 1635 in Leyden, Holland. Edmund Sr died Mar 1686 in Duxbury, Ma.

EDMUND WESTON the progenitor of that portion of the WESTON family who settled in PLYMOUTH COLONY, came to Boston in the ship ELIZABETH and ANN and settled in the town of DUXBURY in the year 1635. In the passenger list his age is put at thirty years. There is a tradition that in the old country his trade was a thresher of grain. Soon after coming into town he entered himself as an apprentice unto John Winslow and Nathaniel Thomas, and in 1639 formed a copartnership with John Carver for planting and farming. In 1652 was a surveyor of highways, and from this time his name was mentioned in connection with town affairs and in various public matters. Winslow, in his history of Duxbury speaks of him as 'the enterprising ancestor of an enterprising family whose descendants have been numerous, and most of them resided in town'. He married late in life, probably a'de la Noye'(afterwards called DELANO)

The children of Edmund Weston were:

Elnathan b 1657 d 23 Apr 1724	m Desire Standish
Mary	m John Delano
Edmund b 1660 d 23 Sept 1723	m Rebecca Soule

(1511) George Soule, Pilgrim was born about 1595 in England, and married about 1626 in Plymouth, Ma, (1512) Mary Bucket who was born about 1602 in England. George, Pilgrim died 22 Jan 1679 in Duxbury, Ma. Mary died Dec 1676 in Duxbury, Ma.

GEORGE SOULE, born in England probably between 1593 and 1600, died in DUXBURY before 22 Jan 1679 when his inventory was taken by EDWARD SOUTHWORTH and THOMAS DELANO. The tentative dates for his birth are based on his signing of the MAYFLOWER COMPACT in 1620 and his death in 1679. As a signer of the Compact he must have been twenty, the known age of Gilbert Winslow. Since a life span of eighty-five was rare in those days he was born not much earlier than 1593. His wife was probably Mary Bucket (?Beckett) who arrived aboard ANNE 31 July 1623. They were married abt 1626.

GEORGE SOULE joined in London a company of adventurers off to the New World. His status is clearly established as a "servant" to relatively wealthy EDWARD WINSLOW, PILGRIM who was a signer also of the famed MAYFLOWER COMPACT 11 NOV 1620.

Unlike some of his colleagues, he never returned to his homeland. However, suffice to say that he became a relatively well-to-do leader, business man and office holder in the PLYMOUTH COLONY. As early as July 1627 was one of a group of fifty-eight 'PUCHASER or OLD COMERS' who assumed PLYMOUTH COLONY'S debt to 'The Adventurers', the promoters and capitalists who financed the voyage of the Mayflower.
